HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1880. ALTHOUGH we do not wish to say one word for or against the decision arrived ut by the Chief Justice upon the points but there was also evidence of his having been raised in the estate of the late Mr G. U. Sands, there are one or two things which strike us as neculiar in the judgment delivered yesterday. It may be. and we believe it is, the best thing for munication of any kind was made to the the interests of all concerned that the police about this matter by the Ting Wah security approved of by the learned Judge is that of Debentures in the donrishing concern known as the China Sugar Refinery Company. We have seldom, if ever, heard of a Dock Company being materially damaged by the a jury minumoned and this inquest was held effects of a typhoon: indeed, the larger shareholders of such companies have been known to express longings after such a catastrophe, on the ground that Accidental Death" was returned, bringe "grist to the mill." Still there is no reason why we should take the trouble to balance the relative value | We have received the May-lane number of security furnished by a Dock Company and that which rests on the success of a Sugar Company. His Lordship has done that for us, and for the Dr A. P. Happer) has taken thatge of this public, as well as for the parties in magazine. In his opening note, he makes mediately concerned. As the learned a graceful bow to the Press in China Chief Justice very emphatically puts it. "The question is one for my decision and not for the judgment or caprice of Mrs Sands. Relying on that affidavit with the honest desire to extend calighten-[Mr Brereton's] and on my own ob- ment in this part of the world. a system, or want of system, or against the upholders or those responsible for such a system. It was generally supposed by the public that the installation of a properly-qualified and apparently energetic Registrar of this Court-who, we presume, is responsible for the "provision for managing the receipt and custody and disposal of the money of suitors "-had done away with all insecurity in such momentons matters. But the public must be wrong if the learned Chief Justice be right in this connection. He appears to think that the insecurity of funds in the hands of others of the Supreme Court is a stronger reason than the greater value of the security selected, why be should pronounce in favour f Debentures rather than the other mode suggested. It may be that His Lordship did not mean to convey so much in the words we have quoted above; and we sincerely trust that he did not, still more that there is no substantial foundation for such a construction under the new regime of Mr Registrar Gibbons. The subject, however, is one which has received frequent attention in these columns, as well as the most careful investigation of an able Commission; and if, in spite of all that has been said and, written, no improvement has been effected, it behoves the Head of the Executive to call upon the Hend of the Judiciary, and upon the Head of the Registrar's Department, for the reasons why such an unsatisfactory state of things should continue to prevail.

Pioneer, long before the appearance of Col. Gordon's wonderful letter, says :--

You have a very dangerous man in Gordon; unless indeed, the very ecormity of his eccentricity does not take him out of the region of dangerous men. He is essentially a man of action, not of the pen; he is almost unfit to be trusted with a pen, indulging it, as he does, in the wildest excesses and most choice freaks."

MUCK attention and some comment. for the most part unfavourable, has been attracted in Madras lately by the appearance of two female street preschers, calling themselves Mrs. Osborn-and Mrs. Amanda Smith. It would now seem that the revivalists consider the benighted city to be sufficiently awakened, or possibly past awakening, for we find Mrs. Amanda Smith undertaking a journey to Bangelore for the purpose of negotiating with the Inspector of Police for permission to carry on the campaign there. A local paper occupies a leading article in proving with much circumstance that the pulpit is not the proper piace for a woman. But no argument can o'ose the subject so effectually as Dr Johnson's remark-" Sir, a woman preaching is like a dog walking on his hindlegs. It is not well done; but you are surprised to see it done at all." - Pioneer.

Naws has been received from Ladakh up to the 16th of May, (says the Calculta Englishman) which mentions the arrival of some traders from Yarkand, with five horses, after a journey of thirty-two days. These traders report "that the Chinese are quietly established in Yarkand and Kash gar; to the satisfaction, it is hoped, of the Inhabitants, who certainly declared that they always preferred Chinese rule to the rod of iron with which Yakoob Beg governed them. A son of Abdul Rahman Bakshi Bardar-the man who joined Hakim Khan in the revolt against the Chinese-has again invaded Sarikul. The Bakshi Bardar, in Beptember last, was invited to come into the town of Tashkurgan, and was then treactionously killed by the Tajik in habitants. His son goes with 600 horsemen to avenge his death, and it is said that he has already imprisoned the actual murderers of his father. This was about hix weeks ago. It is believed that Chinese troops will be sent into Sarikol. Another plece of news from beyond the Karakoram McGarry, 27th, and for the Irish, Lieut. is that a Russian agent in company with some Russian merchants, has arrived in Kashgar with 200 horseloads of merchandise, consisting of drapery and guns. The Russians, according to the latest accounts, have not yet left Kashgar.

THE CHINA-REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication? similar in object and style, but slightly tables and other intelligence as is conmodified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, erc., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Rthnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of Chins, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Por-tuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review

Notes and Replies are classified togeiber as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scho- The Barracks and Naval and Military lars are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address China Revisio, Hongkong. Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the Road neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable : and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent Pencil-cases, &c. John Noble, agent summary is presented of the chronological for Negretti & Zambra. problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Sn Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will form a substantial octavo magazine.

THE CHINESE MAIL.

The subscription is fixed at Four To VICTORIA GAP (TO LEVEL OF UMBRELLA Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Seven Dollars Fifty Cents including postage to Coast ports. The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese, — consider themselves justified in guaranteeing an ultimate circulation of between 3,000 and 4,000 copies. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of The field open to a paper of this desorip
